

In Support of Kyra Clardy
October 2015

To all of you Beautiful Women of God, I am so proud of you for this website. I am a friend of Kyra Clardy. I feel honored to be able to correspond to you. My first inclination was to write exclusively to Kyra but the Holy Spirit has directed me to send this message to all of you. I am a firm believer in the Supernatural because with God nothing shall be impossible. As I viewed the website I sensed your potential in your endeavors. I truly believe that you will be a blessing and an encouragement to many people. I simply ask that you keep the faith and stay in prayer daily. You have a heavenly assignment and it is so important that you carry it out to the fullest.

May God richly bless you all.

Much love,
Alda Epps
