

December 2, 2015

I would like to send my love to Ms Naomi Blount she has touched so many people and has made me look at life in different aspects. Tonya Crouch has been very inspiring as well even though these women have LWOP they remain positive and focused and I pray one day they will all make it home. R.I.P to Ms. Peachie if it wasn't for her fighting for me I never would have gotten my anger management certificate. R.I.P to Renee Thomas the best roommate ever - smile down on me and look over us all at least you're not suffering behind those gates anymore. I love you ladies keep the faith one day your dreams will become reality.

From: April Fahr